"Elegant simplicity is a subtle quality, requiring thoughtful effort, patience and care", is the motto for Claudia Endler's numerous accessory collections. From her extremely sophisticated and exquisite collections, we are introduced to her personality with a catchy phrase for each hand-made piece.

All of Claudia Endler Designs products are manufactured in accord with very high standards of craftsmanship and technical quality. Available in 18K white, yellow or pink gold and platinum upon request, Claudia's products are sure to satisfy even the most unsatisfiable of people.

By combining elements from graphic design, art, and architecture, the essence of Claudia's jewelry designs is to illuminate the unique qualities that define each person, individually. Claudia's designs offer distinctive alternatives to the traditional matrimonial fare. "Jewelry is body language. I see it as a way to discover, express, and reveal. I use the power of proportion, attention to detail, and the omission of the non-essential elements to bring each piece to its minimum and purest form," says Claudia.
